OUR FIRST NOVEMBER AD ought to speak of the nicest thing we know of for warm Night Gowns and that is Amoskeag Daisy Cloth. Ready for you in Pink, Light Blue, Cream and Grey. We know of no better cloth. We have carried the brand for years, and the war price or any other price is only 12c

COTTON BATTS spread nicely between various fabrics will be worn a great deal during the coming winter and will be comfortable. We have styles at 10, 12½ and 18 cents, also a 3 pound batt, large enough for a full-sized comfortable and made from a quality of cotton that will wash and not lump up, at $1 each.

FANCY TICKINGS are ready here to meet your requirements for Christmas, or other pillows in pretty patterns, at 25c per yard. A nice range of colorings. We also carry the old reliable A. C. A. Tick for ordinary use where you wish to keep the feathers corralled.

FOR HIM OR HER A BATH ROBE and we are showing Saturday in our north window some Bath Robe Blankets that are varied and beautiful and unsurpassed in finish. We show them early that your work may be finished before the big December Rush. When you buy these goods your money is not spent—it's invested.

RUGS ARE NICE. We are showing some especially nice. A clean up of a 27x54 inch lot of a hit and miss pattern enables us to sell to you at $1.59. When you see them they will hit your fancy as they will not conflict with any color scheme of your home. If you miss buying them its because you do not need a rug.

WORDS ARE JUST WORDS but some newly opened muslin Collar and Cuff Sets, priced at twenty-five cents are just a little prettier, and carry more value, than any you have probably seen just lately.

ONE POUND NET OF COCOA put up in a neat glass jar, can be purchased here for just twenty-five cents. As we have had no complaints on this cocoa, it occurs to us as a good buy.
